

~~SECRET~~
~~Security Information~~

RESEARCH AIDS PRODUCED BY THE
OFFICE OF COLLECTION AND DISSEMINATION

Index to winners of Stalin prizes in science and invention for 1935-1951. September 1952. 121p. (Biographic research aid, CIA/CD 2)
N/5 917.601.U5 RESTRICTED

An alphabetical list of the transliterated names of 7894 Stalin prize winners which indicates the field in which the prize was awarded, the grade of the prize, the year or years for which the prize was awarded, and the reference to the original announcement and the appropriate Foreign Documents Division publication. A total of 810 individual awards have been made in science and 763 in invention and industrial improvement. Partial listings of the names appearing in this index can be supplied by the Biographic Register in any desired combination. Future annual cumulative indexes may also be requested.

Selected reference aids to Cyrillic alphabet materials. Preliminary edition. October 1952. 48p. (CIA/CD 3) 1 927 .U62 SECRET

Designed to facilitate research in the literature of the Soviet Union, CIA/CD 3 includes annotations of card catalogs, bibliographies, indexing and abstracting services, accessions lists and translating services available in the Central Intelligence Agency or the Library of Congress. Selections for this list have been limited to reference tools in those subjects which come within the purview of national intelligence. Bibliographic citations are arranged alphabetically by author or title. There are accompanying indexes by subject and by author, title, publisher, and translator.

Soviet men of science; a biographical directory. May 1952. 1030p. (Research aid, CIA/CD 1) N/5 937.600 .U5 SECRET

This publication brings together in summary form information on approximately 18,000 Soviet scientists and technologists specializing in the natural, physical and applied sciences. Biographic data for each scientist listed covers name and year of birth, latest known position, education, field of conversance, career, bibliography, membership in scientific organizations, awards and honors, home address, and CIA case number. Of particular interest

~~SECRET~~
~~Security Information~~

SECRET
Security Information

to the intelligence researcher is the bibliography of scientific articles published by each scientist listed in SOVIET MEN OF SCIENCE. This information has been derived by screening approximately 105 Russian journals covering the period 1948 through December 1951. All articles are cited in English with the source in transliterated Russian. This biographical directory also contains a subject index arranged alphabetically by major fields of conversance and within each of these fields, by subordinate specialties.

CIA LIBRARY. Accessions list: books. V/8 927 .U58 RESTRICTED

A weekly record of current accessions processed by the CIA Library. The entries are classified under ten broad subject headings; general reference works, communism, economics, geography, history, intelligence, military affairs, political affairs, science and technology, and social and cultural forces.

CIA LIBRARY. Bibliography series. Security classification varies.

The bibliographies published by the CIA Library are lists of selected publications on subjects of broad interest to CIA components and to national intelligence. They are compiled from materials available in the CIA Library, in other libraries in CIA, and in the libraries of governmental and private organizations and may include publications in all languages. The arrangement of each bibliography is determined by the nature and scope of the subject. In 1952 the CIA Library published the following bibliographies: Standard of living and distribution system in the U.S.S.R., 57p. (No. 1-52) RESTRICTED; Economic warfare, 63p. (No. 2-52) SECRET; Mao Tse-Tung, 43p. (No. 3-52) SECRET; and Communism, a selected list of materials published since 1 January 1949, 80p. (No. 4-52) RESTRICTED. Bibliographies of limited interest are produced in typescript on demand and indexed in the Library's catalogs.

CIA LIBRARY. Foreign telephone directories. 4 February 1952. 14p
I 927.915 .U5 1952 RESTRICTED

This list includes all the foreign telephone directories in the CIA Library arranged alphabetically by country. Spellings used

SECRET
Security Information

SECRET
Security Information

CIA LIBRARY. Foreign Telephone Directories. (Continued)

are either those most commonly used in English or those which appear on the directories themselves. Specialized directories (alphabetical, classified, professions, or streets) are indicated where appropriate.

GRAPHICS REGISTER. Personalities. Bulletin. CONFIDENTIAL

A monthly accessions list of photographs procured for intelligence studies. It is arranged alphabetically by nationality and under nationality by name of the individual with added information on the occupation of each. The security classification, date, and photo number are indicated. These photographs are available from OCD/GR for limited distribution according to the classification of each.

GRAPHICS REGISTER. Spot photography. Bulletin. CONFIDENTIAL

This monthly accessions list of photographs is arranged alphabetically by country and under country by place name with added information on the subject of each picture. The type of photography (e.g. interior, ground, or aerial), quality, security classification, date, and photo number are indicated. Photographs listed are available from OCD/GR for limited distribution according to the classification of each.

INDUSTRIAL REGISTER. Industrial installations ... index series. SECRET

The indexes to the basic material in the Industrial Register files serve, in addition, as directories of the industrial installations of each country and the twelve economic regions of the U.S.S.R. Each index provides lists of installations alphabetically by (a) location, (b) name of installation, and (c) type of industry. Information concerning the political subdivision, plant number, name type, status, Air Force chart number, IR file number, and type of industrial activity are provided for each installation. Lists of code numbers and their interpretations accompany each index. Future editions of these indexes will be issued biennially.

SECRET
Security Information

SECRET
Security Information

INDUSTRIAL REGISTER. Recent accessions of industrial catalogues and brochures. Serial IR-1. 16 December 1952. 7p. RESTRICTED

A new publication of the Industrial Register only one of which has been published to date. Publication will be irregular with varied classification. Listings are by country with the name of the company and/or the product. Magazines are cited by title. All materials listed are on file in the Reference Section, Support Branch of the Industrial Register. References indicate dispatch numbers, and dates if the material was received as an enclosure.

SECRET
Security Information